QUESTION 1

Identify the error in the following sentence:

Him and his sister ran and ran, but they could not seem to get away from the pack of dogs.

- A. Him and his sister
- B. ran and ran
- C. could not seem
- D. pack of dogs.
- E. No error

Correct Answer: A

Explanation: The correct form would be he and his sister.

QUESTION 2

Identify the error in the following sentence:

"I don't want too and you can't make me," said he.

- A. "I don't
- B. too
- C. me,"
- D. said he.
- E. No error

Correct Answer: B

Explanation: The form should be to.

QUESTION 3

Identify the error in the following sentence:

The sale ends at 11:00, so you should get there quick if you want to take advantage of the discount prices.

- A. sale
- B. you
- C. there

- D. quick
- E. No error

Correct Answer: D

The correct answer is "quick" because "quick" is an adjective and should not be used to describe a verb. In this sentence "quick" is the manner in which the person should get to the store. To correct the problem, simply substitute the adjective "quick" with the adverb "quickly."

QUESTION 4

Determine whether the underlined portion of the sentence below is correct or whether it needs to be revised. Choose the correct option.

In countries such as China the government is recognizing the advantages of a capitalist market rather than communism and adjust economic policy accordingly.

- A. capitalist market rather than communism and adjust
- B. capitalist market rather than Communism and adjust
- C. capitalist market rather than a communist market and adjust
- D. capitalist market rather than a communist market and adjusting
- E. Capitalistic market nor a Communist market and adjusting

Correct Answer: D

Explanation: The problem with this sentence is in parallel structure. The test is very particular about being consistent about the forms of words used. So specifically since the sentence refers to a capitalist market, then the sentence must refer to a communist market -- not communism, which is an ideology rather than a market system in this context. Only choices "capitalist market rather than Communism and adjust", "capitalist market rather than a communist market and adjusting" and "Capitalistic market nor a Communist market and adjusting" remain. Choice "Capitalistic market nor a Communist market and adjusting" commits terrible capitalization (neither "capitalist" nor "communist") mistakes and structure errors (where does the "nor" fit in? It does not.) Only choice "capitalist market rather than Communism and adjust" and choice "capitalist market rather than a communist market and adjusting" remain now, but "capitalist market rather than Communism and adjust" mistakenly capitalizes communism and does not change "adjust" to match the parallel verb (i.e. recognizing). Choice "capitalist market rather than a communist market and adjusting" uses the right adjective forms of capitalism and communism, does not make capitalization errors and maintains parallel sentence structure.

QUESTION 5

Identify the error in the following sentence:

Many students that take rigorous English courses in high school spend time analyzing and interpreting prose and poetry by well-respected writers.

- A. that
- B. English

C. prose

D. well-respected

E. No error

Correct Answer: A

Explanation: This sentence refers to English courses taken by high school students. Whenever there is a description of a person or people, the pronoun "who" must be used. Students are not inanimate objects. Therefore, part A should be replaced by "who" in the place of "that." English should always be capitalized because it is a language, "prose" is a form of writing just like poetry and "well-respected" is an adjective that is appropriate to describe writers.
