QUESTION 1

The facts are well known. About half of all Indian children are undernourished, more than half suffer from anemia, and a similar proportion escapes full immunization.

- A. About half of all Indian children are undernourished; more than half suffer from anemia, a similar
- B. About half of all Indian children are undernourished, and more than half suffer from anemia, a similar
- C. About half of all Indian children are undernourished, more and than half suffer from anemia, a similar
- D. About half of all Indian children are undernourished and, more than half suffer from anemia, a similar
- E. About half of all Indian children are undernourished; more than half suffer from anemia, and a similar

Correct Answer: E

This sentence has an error in the use of parallelism. When there are many ideas or things take place in a sentence, the conjunction '\and\' must take place before the last idea or the thing as it is shown in the option "About half of all Indian children are undernourished; more than half suffer from anemia, and a similar"; whereas, other options are wrong by placing the conjunctions inappropriate places.

QUESTION 2

Read the passage and correct the number 6 underlined words or phrases.

Danny and Carla (1) were being married for two years. For (2) there honeymoon, they (3) had gone to the Grand Cayman Island for a nice, relaxing vacation at a luxury beach resort. But their honeymoon turned out to be anything but relaxing. When (4) they were arriving at the airport, they hailed a taxi. The taxi driver strapped the suitcases to the top of the car and sped off towards the resort. Along the way, the taxi driver swerved (5) to avoid hit a cat on the road. This caused (6) Carla\' suitcase to fly off the car and crash in the road. Her clothes, shoes, and personal items (7) had flown everywhere. She yelled (8) anger at the driver to stop immediately. Danny and Carla rushed out of the cab to gather her belongings. Once they collected everything they (9) can find, they started again for the resort. When they finally arrived, the driver charged them for the time spent collecting the things on the road. Irate, Danny made sure not to tip him. Exhausted, Danny and Carla checked into their room. When they got to the room, they noticed they did not have a beachfront view as they (10) had been promised. They were also in a smoking room even though they had requested a non-smoking room. Danny asked to switch rooms, but the concierge (11) apollageticaly replied that they were booked for the rest of the week. (12) "Its a popular week for tourists, sir," she replied. Nothing (13) could be done. Danny, that was trying to stay positive, told Carla not to worry. As long as they kept the windows open, the smell of cigarettes would not be (15) to much of a bother. The next day, they (16) waked up early to fish and then go to the beach. They walked (17) at the beach and found a small table, two chairs, and a large umbrella. Then, they rented a boat to fish. Carla caught only one fish, but Danny (18) catched several fishes. When they got back, they took a nap on the beach. They finally felt peaceful. A few minutes later, a large family with six kids took a space right next to them. The kids were loud. Some of the kids were arguing, while some ran around squealing in delight. Danny and Carla were unable to sleep, so Danny suggested they (19) went for a walk together. Not paying attention to where they were walking, Carla suddenly jumped up and screamed in agony. She had stepped on a jellyfish and (20) had got stung. She was in pain and couldn\'t walk, so Danny (21) had carried her all the way back to the room. Back (22) into the room, Danny (23) realizing they had left their things at the beach. Just as he was about to get them, it started to (24) poor. Danny hoped the umbrella would keep their things dry, but the wind was knocked the umbrella over and everything (26) were soaked. Their books, phones, and wallet was ruined. To make matters worse, the rain didn't stop. Two days (28) went by. They had to stay in their smelly room, Carla was still in pain, and Danny was in a bad mood. Needless to say, they (29) gone home early. They thought they might be able to get their money back from the travel agent, but that was also (30) unsuccessfull.

(25)

(27)

A.

Carla\\'s

B.

no change

C.

Carlas

D.

Carlas\\'

Correct Answer: A

Carla is a noun that does not end in "s," so the possessive is formed by adding an apostrophe and s, as in "Carla\\'s."

QUESTION 3

"Shirley Ann wanted to go to the races she could not afford to go."

Which answer option effectively corrects this run-on sentence?

A. Although Shirley Ann wanted to go to the races she could not afford to go.

B. Shirley Ann wanted to go to the races: she could not afford to go.

C. Although Shirley Ann wanted to go to the races, she could not afford to go.

D. Shirley Ann wanted to go to the races, she could not afford to go.

Correct Answer: C

QUESTION 4

That who dreams of striking it rich can still tries panning for gold in some of the mines and relives the past on a guided tour.

A. Thai who dream of striking it rich can still

- B. These who dream of striking it rich can still
- C. This who dream of striking it rich can still
- D. Those who dream of striking it rich can still
- E. Them who dream of striking it rich can still

Correct Answer: D

This sentence has an error by using a conjunction (that) in the place of a pronoun.

Option "Thai who dream of striking it rich can still" uses a noun in the place of a pronoun.

Option "These who dream of striking it rich can still" uses a plural pronoun (these) that is used when there is something near or defined nouns nearby.

Option "This who dream of striking it rich can still" use a singular pronoun (this) that cannot be applicable. Option "Them who dream of striking it rich can still" uses a third person plural personal pronoun (them). Option "Those who dream of striking it rich can still" uses the appropriate plural indefinite pronoun (those); hence, it is the correct answer.

QUESTION 5

Read the paragraph and select the sentence or sentences that do not logically fit.

"Dog breeds vary widely and there are many factors to consider when deciding which breed is right for your family. Common factors to consider include energy level, trainability, and maintenance. Energy level refers to how much your future dog may want or need to run, play, and train. Dogs of higher intelligence, such as the German Shepherd, tend to have high energy levels and therefore would not be a good fit for an owner who loves to relax on the couch after work. When it comes to trainability, not all dogs are equal. Some thrive on learning new tricks, while others, such as the Shih Tzu, may take a while to learn simple commands. It is a good idea to prepare your home for a new puppy before bringing them inside. Puppies are curious by nature and will find lots of things to chew and eat if you allow them. Finally, maintenance is a key component when owning any dog, but some are more work than others. If you can't stand shedding or fur on the sofa, consider a Poodle or a designer Poodle mix, who don't shed at all and have hypoallergenic coats. Taking these important differences into account will ensure a healthy, happy relationship between you and your new dog. Regardless of the breed you choose, remember that there is nothing more satisfying than the bond between a human and their dog."
